Dr. J. E. Schlottmann this week broke ground for the foundation of a modern home which he will erect in the Fly Addition. The structure will be of D'Hanis brick, and will contain all the conveniences of an up-to-date home and is estimated to cost between $6,000 and $7,000. This is the first residence of consequence to be built in Hondo since the erection of the Jacob Reilly home, and we hope the example set by Dr. Schlottmann will be followed by others. There has been but little home building in Hondo for the past several years.

Mrs. Louis Hutzler of Dunlay was attacked and bitten on the hand by the family dog several days ago. Becoming somewhat uneasy for fear the dog might have been affected with rabies, the canine was slain and the head sent to the Pasteur Institute at Austin Monday, and Tuesday Dr. Smith, County Health Officer, received a telegram from the director of the Institute stating that an examination of the dog's brain failed to disclose the presence of rabies, which was pleasant information to Mrs. Hutzler and her friends.

For these 25 vats to be erected the county is furnishing the cement and the citizens do the rest. By this means the vats will cost the county $50 each. The Yancey people believe they have oil in their section and they are going to make a determined effort to tap it. Work was begun Thursday tearing down the derrick over the L. J. Schmidt well and moving it to a new location, nearly one-half mile south of the Newell-Nalle well, on the Nixon ranch, the new location being on the same ranch. An experienced driller has been secured and will be available whenever his services are required. The derrick, we are advised, will be an 85 foot one, and a hole sufficiently large to carry the well down to 3,500 feet if necessary, will be provided. That the efforts of the enterprising people down there will be crowned with the success they deserve is the wish of everyone. Geologists have pronounced favorably on their section and the attention of all our people will be focussed on Yancey for the next ninety days.

The people living upon the Hondo are somewhat mystified by two pools of blood found in the road some 200 yards beyond the graveyard last Sunday morning. The pools were some fifteen inches apart, and each indicated that between a pint and a quart of blood had been lost at each place. The blood was found on the gravel on the new road and had barely coagulated when found Sunday morning. The people up there are curious to know how the blood came there as no animals, as far as the people know, have been injured in that neighborhood. Indentions in the road, apparently automobile tracks, were found near the blood pools and the people up there believe two cars collided, but if that is a fact, they have failed to learn who were driving the cars.

Workmen are busy transforming the Frerichs Store building on north Front street into a home for the Hondo Chamber of Commerce. Shelves, etc., will be arranged on which Medina county produce will be displayed and doubtless the collection will be a revelation to our own people as well as to visitors to our town. Anything that grows elsewhere will grow in Medina county, and doubtless the display that will soon be in evidence at the Chamber's headquarters will prove an incentive to our people to improve their fruit, vegetable and farm crops beyond any effort heretofore made.

Hon Cullen F. Thomas, candidate for United States Senator, has published a speaking itinerary for Southwest Texas. Only one of these dates are for Medina county. He will speak at Devine at 2 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, March 21st.

The Live Oak school, a few miles south of town, has been suspended all week, both teachers, Misses Octavia Davis and Hettie Fusselman, and several of the pupils being sick with the prevailing epidemic of flu.

Miss Josephine Karm returned home Sunday afternoon after spending three weeks in Riomedina, Castroville and San Antonio visiting relatives and friends.

THE Nation's Chautauqua
The citizens who compose the Chautauqua Committee are preparing to announce the dates for this year under the auspices of the Radcliffe Enterprises. The engagement will open on the afternoon of March 23.

The importance of the event and its influence for good can not be estimated. The Radcliffe Chautauqua is a national institution—not only in scope of its operation, but in the American spirit it emphasizes and in the enthusiasm with which it discusses the fundamentals of American life.

Its nationalism does not preclude a close study of the community cause the community life is recognized as the essential inspiration of national life. The Radcliffe Chautauqua sounds the keynote for achievement in the community—not only in business, economics, and social intercourse in art and in the relaxations to provide the playtime necessary to make life's work the more effective. A wealth of music of the best is available and wholesome entertainment, varied as it is attractive, provides a liberal element of diversion without sacrifice of intellectual standards. Every taste is appealed to. Radcliffe Chautauqua. Special vision is made for the young who are taught new games and the stories dear to childhood. Junior Worker who has made a special study of this new and highly important branch of education. Childhood broadens into youth greater appreciation is shown for music and the human nature stimulated by accomplished art. Maturity finds in the Radcliffe Chautauqua an opportunity for thoughtful contact with the world at large. The best ideas are placed before audience with greater clarity and timeliness than would be possible through any other medium.

The lectures are unified, delivered by accomplished speakers, and they proceed logically from one to another assist in a solution many perplexing problems. They appeal to those who delight in accurate thinking as well as in eloquent expression. They inspire and vitalize in a manner particularly valuable the time when the world concentrates its every effort on industrial recuperation. Three days of music, melody and merriment, combined with a series of lectures practical and purposeful are provided for. Three days offering a never-changing panorama of relaxation and constructive thought. Desirous of affording every one in this community and vicinity an opportunity to share in the benefits of the Chautauqua, the Committee has fixed the price of tickets at the lowest possible figure—$2.00 for adults and $1.00 for children.

In bringing the Radcliffe Chautauqua here, the Committee was actuated solely by the spirit of service to the community, not by any thought of financial gain. However, the committee takes charge of all receipts, retains any surplus for community betterment. It is a moment led by public-spirited citizens strictly for the advancement of the community in its civic as well as individual life. As such, it seeks and merits the active support and cooperation of every resident.

CULLEN THOMAS' FIRST BROADSIDE

Opening Speech at His Home in Valley Mills. Thousands Present.

Valley Mills, Texas, Feb. 25th: An enthusiastic crowd of estimated at five thousand, Cullen F. Thomas, today made the opening speech of his campaign for the United States Senate.

He came as a boy from Tennessee and taught school his first years in Texas.

CULLEN F. THOMAS

The community took a holiday, for a free barbecue, parade, band and speakers. A dozen four-minute talks were made by visiting speakers from neighboring counties.

Synopsis of Mr. Thomas' address follows:

I am happy on this eventful day, the great adventure of life, to stand among my best and earliest friends on Texas soil. Learning in my boyhood the story of Crockett and Austin, leaving behind the old Tennessee farm, I was drawn toward Texas as a land of romance and opportunity.

Target for Opponents.

Now that I have offered for high office, though but a private citizen, I find myself already a target for the challenging my aspirations. I am that one of my honorable opponents through the press appeals for support on the ground that he has been mixed up in past political affairs in Texas. I find another opponent, though quoted as regular in alignment with the reform forces, claiming to reap advantages over my life before the people because of his lack of activity. I find another opponent bluntly announcing his candidacy chiefly against me, because of the things for which I have stood and fought through the years.

I raise these questions before the blinded men and women with whom I have labored long and so hard. Must a candidate be punished because he has convictions and the courage to stand for them?

Will the women of Texas, when I am sought by others because of my activities in their behalf, be mindful of my earnest advocacy to the ballot in their hands as co-workers with men in building a better world?

And am I to be penalized because the days that tried men's courage I never flinched in the fight to break the strange hold of the law on liquor traffic, in the moral and political life of Texas?

I present these other questions to you against whom I may have been arrayed in other campaigns: Is a premium to be offered in politics on difference or diffidence?

What sort of soldier is he, old enough to shoulder a gun, who boasts that he has fought no battles? Shall the humblest of us be ashamed of our scars? Will the timid warrior of years lead a charge next year?

Is not the Senate of the United States a battlefield?

I would not re-open but heal the wounds of the past. I rejoice in the generous support of many splendid Texans, who in other days followed a different flag. I stand ready and now to join hands with all the women of yesterday as friends today in facing the new problems that challenge us tomorrow.

Against Centralization.

Let the trumpet call be sounded, to Congresses, to Executives and to Federal Courts, against further encroachments on the reserved rights of independent states.

Let every lover of America stand guard to preserve inviolate the sacred principles of local self-government in all matters of local concern. Let every American state, from the Rhode Island to Imperial Texas, realize its dignity and exercise its sovereignty over its own internal affairs.

Is not Congress a hopper into which are poured fanciful and new-fangled schemes for regulation of private and domestic concerns of the people? Do we realize that more than ten thousand bills and resolutions have been offered during the present Congress? Is not the federal government fast becoming a bureaucratic government?

Let us not think of Uncle Sam as a benign, bewhiskered Santa Claus, handing gifts down to the people. Let us remember the gospel taught by Jefferson that "were we directed from Washington when to sow and when to reap, we would soon want bread."

Peril of Wealth.

I know of no graver peril to the republic than the concentration of the wealth of the country in the hands of a few. In my boyhood a rare thing was the millionaire. In my brief span we have reached the age of the billionaire.

What is the picture? Who owns America, with its wealth estimated at $250,000,000,000? The economists tell us that one man owns one-hundredth part of all its wealth; that one per cent of its families own more than one-half of all its wealth; that two per cent of the people own two-thirds of all its wealth; that two-thirds of the people own but one-twentieth of all its wealth.

The popular cry is heard in some quarters for less government in business. I am for whatever government in business may be necessary to break the grip of big business on the government.

I have no fear that organized greed will not be heard in Washington. I want to go to speak for the hard-pressed, forgotten men and women of the land, toiling in shop and store and factory, and in dark mines and by flaming forges—for such as these are the burden-bearers of the world.

Lobby Evil.

I favor and if elected will introduce and champion a stringent, National anti-lobbying law that by the power of publicity and prison penalties will put the brand on corporate hirelings and protect public business from meddlesome and nefarious methods of those whose sole motive is private gain and not the general good.

Squandermania.

The question of pressing concern on our citizenship is the staggering cost of government. The call, as never before, alike in nation and state is for the cut-to-the-bone economy.

How appalling to learn that the annual cost of the Federal Government is more than the annual cost of all our forty-eight state governments and all of our town and city and county governments!

How staggering the burden that to pay the federal appropriations for the year 1920 would take all the money got that year for all the cotton, wheat, and corn raised by all the farmers of America!

No wonder Roger Babson, the statistician, would say, "A business administration of the federal government would save $2,000,000,000 per year to the people of the United States."

A Senator can render his country no higher service than to fight like fighting fire to stop this squandermania in government.

Problems of Taxation.

The views of every Senator on every phase of taxation touch vitally every taxpayer's pocket-book.

I have nothing to conceal. In a nut-shell I would raise this money chiefly by direct and not indirect taxation. I would levy this annual toll on possession and not on consumption. I would lift the chief part of this $4,000,000,000 burden from the backs of those who have not and let the load be borne by those who have.

Now comes the proposal to lick a stamp on every bank check. Again, to increase letter postage from two to three cents, to pick up the pennies of the people. Again, to tax the autos ten dollars apiece, making no distinction between tin Lizzies and limousines. Again, a tax on gasoline with equal burden on the farmer's tractor and the pleasure car of the rich. Again, a general sales tax that levies its toll on every thing in every home from kitchen to parlor, from baby cradle to coffin.

Against all these shifting subtler fuges and devices, I stand firmly opposed.

Tariff Robbery

I take issue with those Democratic members of Congress who talk eloquently about a tariff for revenue only and then vote for the most indefensible tariff measure fathered by the Republican Party in its history.

I denounce the so-called Farmers Emergency Tariff as a quick remedy for the farmers woes. The Emergency Tariff provided for 35c per bushel on wheat. Since its passage wheat dropped from $1.50 to 90c per bushel.

It provided for a tariff of 15c per bushel on corn. Corn dropped to 20c per bushel, and the farmers of the Mid-West find it cheaper fuel than burning coal.

It provided a tariff of one cent per pound on rice that cost the farmer from $1.00 to $1.70 per bushel to raise and dropped to 20c and 50c per bushel.

I believe with that plain-spoken Democratic Senator, who declared the Farmers Emergency Tariff "worth as much to the farmers as a square mile of hot air."

Denounces Esch-Cummins Law

The transportation act of Congress, passed in 1920, was the consummation of legislative iniquity.

I object to that provision of the law that undertakes to clothe the Interstate Commerce Commission with power over intrastate traffic and service.

Again, I protest in the name of the whole people, against that provision in the transportation act that authorizes a 6 per cent return on fictitious book values of the railways of the country.

Is it not beyond endurance that the railways should take one bushel of the farmer's corn to ship two? Or take one Texas beef to ship two more? Or take one-half of what the consumer pays for a carload of wonderful Rio Grande Valley fruit? Is it not unconscionable that freight charges should total one-third of what the consumer pays? Is it not highway robbery that freight rates have been advanced approximately 80 per cent within three years.

To those Congressmen who say that they voted for the monstrous Esch-Cummins Act because of the threat of governmental ownership, I pause to ask which is better that a government shall own the railways or that the railways shall hold a mortgage on the American people?

Relief For Farmers.

By forces beyond their control, the farmers saw their markets glutted, their prices slashed and within half a year five millions in values destroyed. It is enough to kindle resolution for a farmer's corn to take the place of cord-wood. It is not very appetizing for a saucer of oatmeal to cost a bushel of oats. It is enough to make a farmer kick hard to get 25c for a cow-hide and pay 50c to have one old shoe half-soled; and to find that one pair of new shoes would cost a whole wagon-load of hides.

But the farmer's problem is a national problem. The hour has struck to marshal all the resources and energies of the government to restore and rebuild this basic industry in the nation's life.

Government Guaranty of Prices

I do not hesitate to go further and declare that in a crisis such as this, I would invoke all the powers of government to lift up and stabilize and sustain the prices of the staple farm products of the country. Does the government possess the power? That is not denied. Should the people through their government exercise that power? What musty platitudes of political economy shall stand in the way?

If the United States Grain Corporation is a useful agency in time of war, why should it not be revived for emergency in time of peace? When all the world yet suffers from the ruin of war?

Or if the government should use its power to establish a maximum price for wheat as a war measure is it not good business and self-defense for the government to establish a minimum reasonable price above the cost of production for corn and wheat and cotton as an emergency peace measure?

Federal Reserve Bank.

The Federal Bank as established and administered during its earliest years served well the nation's need for a sound and elastic currency. It enabled this government without financial crisis or crash to meet the demands of this nation and its allies in World War.

I deprecate and condemn the attitude at times of the Federal Reserve Board at Washington as haughty, defiant, and unsympathetic toward the farming interests of this country, that long ago should have had representation on that Board.

I believe the evidence to be abundant that the sudden contraction of credits through the deflation policies inaugurated at Washington was a potent factor in destroying property values and bringing untold calamity to the country.

Militarism

With all the earnestness of my soul, I dedicate all of life left to me to fight militarism wherever it lifts its ugly head.

On the low plain of money saving, I am against preparation for future wars until we have paid for past wars.

I am unalterably against a big navy.

I do not advocate complete naval disarmament by this country alone, but I hail that coming day when by solemn agreement of all the nations they will scrap and sink all the navies that ride the seven seas.

International Relations

I believe the League of Nations the largest step taken and the best plan yet devised for preserving the peace of the world.

In my opinion the present chaotic condition of the world comes in large part because America defaulted in the day of opportunity and duty. Business, trade, commerce, the opening up of lost markets, the stabilization of debased currency, the cementing of new relationship, the binding up of the gaping wounds of war—all these have awaited the leadership of America at the council table of the League of Nations.

BIG CO-OPERATIVE REVIVAL CAMPAIGN.

Our revival campaign will open on the first Sunday in April at 10:50 a. m. under the auspices of the Methodist church and will continue until the third Sunday in April, at which date the meeting shall be continued, without a break, under the auspices of the Baptist church until the fifth Sunday in April. We sincerely invite the co-operation of all Christian people of every faith and order of the Evangelical church to put in with us and help put this movement over in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Don't be a KNOCKER or a SLACKER, for this is no day in which for such a parasite to exist. Get right and line up for the fight remembering that the "weapons of our warfare are not carnal but through God to the pulling down of the strongholds." (2-Cor.: 10-4.) Let our people spend much time on their knees talking to God. If there is anything that would hinder you from doing your "BIT" in behalf of the Kingdom of God and the salvation of the unsaved, get it out of your life and out of the way. "Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar and go thy way, first to be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift"—(Matt: 5-23-24.)

Pray for yourself, pray for your neighbors, your church, and pray for the leaders in the campaign, that we all may be directed by the Holy Spirit in every good word and work; that each may do their individual part in this, our revival meeting; "looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who will give victory."

The Junior Worker.

The new schedule of the Radcliffe Chautauqua makes ample provision for three memorable days for the young folks in personal companionship with the Junior Worker. She will arrive two days before the Chautauqua opens and remain during the opening day. Throughout this period she will follow out a carefully prepared program of new stories, interesting alike to young and old, and will also teach a series of new games calculated to develop, physically and mentally, the finest traits in all children of varying ages. Many observers and communities regard this feature as one of the most important and constructive forces of the whole Chautauqua program. Certainly it can be made one of the most permanent and far-reaching with the co-operation of parents and teachers. It is in these hours of play, wisely planned and directed, that the spirit of striving and achievement may be aroused to a surprising degree in the young folks, and this may be turned into an invaluable asset in the future life of the children, and of the entire community. For the moment, all this seems only diversion, but it is a very real factor in man-making, character and community building. It is because of this fact that the Junior Worker will devote so long a time to the work here.

The young lady in charge of this work is qualified by study, training, and experience to outline practicable plans to insure the continuance and permanence of organized play, once it is launched, and to offer many helpful suggestions in linking up this phase of community life with other interesting projects.

Sam Goldberg of 818 West Cypress Street, San Antonio, is in the hospital and his truck is in the junk pile as the result of a collision between his truck and passenger train No. 7, at the crossing just this side of D'Hanis, last Friday morning. Goldberg, a vegetable vender, tried to beat the train to the crossing with the above result. He was considerably bruised and skinned up. Dr. Bradley carried the injured man to Sabinal and turned him over to Dr. Hudson, from whence he was sent to a hospital in San Antonio. Dr. Bradley has not heard from Goldberg since leaving him in Sabinal, but does not think he was critically injured.

BARN'S BURN.

Early Tuesday morning the large two-story barn belonging to Johnny Britsch, a few miles north of town, together with most of its contents was destroyed by fire.

How the fire originated is unknown, but it started in some feed in the second story and was consumed by the flames so rapidly that little could be done to salvage the contents. Thirteen hundred bushels of corn, three tons of shucks, two tons of hay, thirty bushels of oats, twelve bushels of cane seed and some two hundred dollars worth of farming tools were among the things destroyed. There was no insurance to cover this heavy loss.

Sam Garrett, a colored farm hand, was painfully though not dangerously burned about the hands and face while fighting the flames.

About eleven o'clock Tuesday morning the barn and garage belonging to Ed Haby at Dunlay was burned. Besides the barn and a quantity of feed, Mr. Haby lost his automobile also.

The car was a practically new Lone Star $1400 car.

A hog that was confined in the barnyard ran into the flames and was burned up.

The water tower belonging to Joe Steinel caught fire and the tank fell to the ground.

Mr. Haby's loss was upwards of two thousand dollars and neither barn nor automobile were insured.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

The Parent-Teacher Association met in monthly session Monday, March 13th.

The roll-call was answered with proverbs.

The monthly business routine was disposed of as usual.

Prof. Howell stated that the Junior Worker, a trained play director and recreational expert, will arrive in town two days before the Chautauqua opens, remaining for three days. She will teach those boys and girls whose welfare is so near to our hearts something of modern organized play. The public is cordially invited to attend. The date to be announced later.

It was voted to secure the services of one of the state nurses at our next medical examinations.

Monthly meeting of April being election of officers the president appointed the following committee: Miss Willie Fly, chairman, Mrs. H. J. Meyer, Mrs. Jack Fusselman and Mrs. Lou Heath.

The hostess for the afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Harger, was assisted by Mrs. J. G. Newton, Mrs. J. S. Fly, Mrs. Harper Fly, Mrs. O. H. Miller and Mrs. R. J. Noonan.

YANCEY BOYS WIN.

Mention is made elsewhere of the visit of Prof. F. H. Patterson and his stock-judging class from the Yancey High School to the Fat Stock Show at Ft. Worth, where they participated in a competitive stock-judging contest.

Later we have been furnished with the following explanatory letter: Supt. F. H. Patterson, Yancey, Texas.

Dear Mr. Patterson:

I wish to congratulate you on the most excellent fight put up by your high school boys in the contest for first honors in stock-judging. In finishing fourth in a field of thirty-two of the best high schools in Texas your boys achieved a distinction that is indeed to be envied.

Your boys were in the contest from the beginning to the end. Their excellent showing and general behavior reveals their excellent training and true personality.

Yours sincerely,

J. H. Hinds, Asst. Director Agricultural Education.

SUCCESS.

"One of the world's greatest short poems."—New York Sun.

'Tis the coward who quits to misfortune,

'Tis the knave who changes each day,

'Tis the fool who wins the battle, Then throws all his chances away.

There is little in life but labor,

And tomorrow may prove but a dream,

Success is the bride of Endeavor,

And luck but a meteor's gleam.

The time to succeed is when others

Discouraged, show traces of tire—

The battle is fought in the home—

And won 'twixt the flag and the wire.—Ex.

The cotton root-rot, mistakenly thought by some to be alkali in the soil, which entails the loss of thousands of dollars every season from the premature dying of cotton before it has fully fruited, can best be fought by rotation of crops. Early and deep plowing and the incorporation of an abundance of vegetable matter in the soil, so as to maintain a deep and well aerated feeding zone for the plants, has been demonstrated as helpful. But the time to do that is virtually past for this season, and the best resource left the farmer who has a soil infested with this fungus disease is to avoid planting cotton on or in close proximity to the affected spots. Corn and the grain sorghums will thrive unharmed on soil so infected as to render the growing of cotton or most other tap-rooted crops unprofitable if not well-nigh impossible.

Commissioner Geo. B. Terrell of the State Department of Agriculture, has announced his candidacy for reelection to the office of Commissioner. As the term will be his second, it is scarcely likely he will have any opposition. Democratic precedent usually—though not always—taking care of that. Mr. Terrell has been grievously handicapped in his administration of the affairs of his great Department by a perverse and parsimonious legislature that has not only failed to give the Department the scope and functions that rightfully belong to it but have handicapped with niggardly support the duties required of it. In this the legislature has been the ignorant or the malicious tool of outside influences that have conspired to cripple and discredit the Department. But with all of the harassments the opposition to our State Department of Agriculture have been able to bring to bear upon Mr. Terrell's administration, they have not been able—nor will they be—to swerve him from his conception of what is right or from putting forth his best efforts with the means at hand. It is to be hoped he may yet realize his ambition to build up a great and useful department out of what the last legislature all but wrecked.

A prominent New York educator in a recent public address told his audience that college men of today do not pray. We are accustomed to look to our college men as leaders in thought and exemplars in conduct. As men think in their hearts, so are they in character and in conduct. If our thought and conduct is poisoned at its very fountain head with infidelity what is to be expected of the great mass of humanity that must follow? When the blind lead the blind verily shall both fall in the ditch. And in the ditch is humanity today. Having released its hold on that concept of God that brought man out of the dark ages and placed him upon the highest pinnacle of moral achievement, humanity is floundering in a moral cess-pool of its own filthiness and corruption. Immorality, vice and crime are the inevitable psychological effects of a loosening of the bonds of moral restraint every creature should feel towards his creator, and until we get hold of a new concept of our moral duty humanity must continue its onward mad rush towards degradation and ruin. The educator above referred to thinks the remedy lies in a return to "the faith of our fathers." Let us hope that either that or something else efficacious may be found to avert the moral cataclysm that inevitably lies in the path of the world's present downward course. In the meantime, let us cling to the faith that "when the strength and wisdom of man fails there is an inexhaustible source yielded to man through prayer." And when the college man gets sufficiently "up against it" he too, as well as the rest of us, will pray—and praying will be better men, and being better men will help to make the world a better world to live in. All of which is the duty of every one who passes this way, and more especially of the college man whose better opportunities have placed greater responsibilities upon him.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Relative to Meeting of Pecan Growers at Brownwood, May 23-24.

In a letter received from Mr. A. I. Fabis of Brownwood, Texas, under date of March 8th, he states that he had canvassed the sentiment and that "Brownwood is now and always will be ready to entertain the Texas Pecan Growers Association. You will be royally welcomed to the only logical place for a pecan gathering in Texas. So kindly make your arrangements and give this matter the proper publicity and Brownwood will not be found wanting."

Our publicity campaign is ready to begin earnestly and will be prosecuted vigorously. It is hoped that pecan growers and dealers from all parts of the state will be present at the meeting. It is planned to have speakers of national reputation appear on the program.

Among the questions to come before the convention for the consideration of the Association will be the proposed amendment of the Pecan Growers Exchange Charter to admit merchants and dealers to membership and to consider the advisability of capitalizing the Exchange with capital stock and methods of raising the necessary capital.

Co. Ike T. Pryor is chairman of a committee, appointed by Pres. J. W. White to report on details of these plans.

Mr. C. D. Jarratt, Sales Manager of the Exchange, is to appear on the program with a report and discussion of his past experience in selling pecans for the growers, and recommendations for the consideration of the growers in their future operations.

Mr. C. Thorp, general Sales Manager of the California Walnut Growers Association, has been invited to attend and discuss in detail the operations of the Walnut Growers Association. It is confidently expected that Mr. Thorp will accept the invitation, as it is known that he is very much interested in the movement of organizing our Texas pecan growers.

Ex-Governor Will H. Mays is to have a number on the program and make a report as chairman of the Legislative committee, appointed at the 1920 meeting to secure a charter for the Texas Pecan Growers Association.

Other speakers of note are being communicated with and we are sure that every moment of the time allotted will be fully occupied. Let every one interested in the development of the pecan industry begin now to arrange to attend this meeting.

J. H. Burkett, Secretary Texas Pecan Growers Association.

MRS. BROWN DEAD.

Father was trying to explain "Standard Time" to little Harry, but Harry was not sure that he understood.

"After all, it is no great matter," said father.

"You are now only in the fourth grade. When you have gone to school longer, you will learn all about it." "Maybe so," said Harry with a reassuring smile. "The teacher says that even lots of eighth grade boys and girls don't understand longitude and latitude."—Wayside Tales.

FEDERAL ENCROACHMENT.

By Hon. Ed. R. Kone, Formerly Commissioner of Agriculture.

To where shall we continue to drift?

The Federal Government in the last few years, apparently without resistance, has encroached upon the states until they have no rights remaining unimpaired.

Those in authority in the state have abandoned all principles of constitutional government, totally disregarding the rights of the people, actuated by expediency, guided by the behest of the anti-saloon league, an ism propagated by the money trust of the East and North, and brought South by them for the express purpose of agitating the mind of the people and diverting it from their nefarious plundering of them.

While in my judgment, the anti-saloon league now is nothing more than a soliciting committee, self-perpetuated, composed of a few wild-eyed fanatics and a lot of crooked politicians, who are plundering the women and children to keep up their fat salaries, yet it is a sort of super-government that is directing the course of the administration of our state government.

If this be not true, how are we to account for the action of Governor Neff in his effort to out-Davis E. J. Davis in his declaration of martial law at Mexia, civil law and individual rights trampled under foot by the iron heel of military despotism in a time of profound peace?

Who can draw the distinction between Neff of Texas and that of Lenin of Russia?

I cannot! Neff is galavanting all over the country declaring that crime in the history of the state was so much and half so bold as at present time; having his satellite meetings all over the state denouncing the officers for not enforcing the law (prohibition, for is all they ever think of) yet his bunch have had every thing in their hands for the last three years.

They do not seem to have sufficient to see that their entire educt is but an advertisement to world that they, their measures and policies are a complete failure.

What shall be done?

Will history repeat itself?

Will the people rise up in the face of their manhood and heave the crits from power, as they did E. Davis, or will they sulk in their homes as they did at the last election refuse to go and vote?

E. J. Davis's administration a model compared to Neff's.

Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

Chautauqua's American Spirit.

The group of citizens whose devotion to the welfare of the community and service of their fellowmen has made it possible for the community to enjoy the privileges and advantages of a Chautauqua, selected the Radcliffe Chautauqua because of its firmly established reputation of fulfilling the true Chautauqua ideals. The program daily provides concert companies and entertainers whose repertoires range from opera and oratorio, modern melody and from the classics of other days, to the poems of the present. Yet the lectures will be even farther reaching in influence.

The lectures this year, as heretofore, are related each to the other, in accordance with a policy distinctive of the Radcliffe Chautauqua. The three evening lectures are devoted to those periods of our national life when America was in the making. They will be delivered in this sequence: "The Spirit of the Colonist," "The Spirit of the Patriot," and "The Spirit of the Pioneer." Not only are the historic fundamentals of our national life here discussed clearly and forcefully, but their lessons are applied to present-day problems. The welfare of every man and woman depends on a right solution of these problems. No one can afford to miss these sane and sound discussions of interests so essential to American existence.

The afternoon lectures, "Making the Dream Come True," "The Storm of Life," and "The Durable Satisfaction of Life" analyze the experiences, the possibilities and the rewards that come to the individual at different periods of life. They are intensely practical, and have been hammered out on the anvil of actual experience. They are messages that live, radiating a philosophy that cheers and encourages.

Ulysses G. Lacey, of Ohio, tall of figure, and as a speaker not unlike the Abraham Lincoln type of ruggedness, directness and earnestness; and Guy M. Bingham, educator, traveler, lecturer, who speaks with a force and eloquence which pleases and compels thought and action.

Resolved by the Womans Missionary Society of Hondo: That, we express to Brother Alexander our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy in this hour of his greatest sorrow, and assure him of our prayers, that we assure him that we consider Sister Alexander to have been a Christian woman of the noblest type, and that we shall ever deem it a great privilege to have been associated with her during the days of her service in Hondo for the Master and we feel that our lives have been made better by having known her,

And be it further Resolved; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved husband, a copy placed on the minutes, and a copy sent to the Protestant Messenger and the Hondo Anvil Herald for publication.

BAPTISTS RAISE $30,000,000 CASH

ALL GENERAL WORK STRENGTHENED BY 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN, IT IS SHOWN.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

Sums That Have Been Appropriated To Various Objects Set Forth By Headquarters Office At Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. E. Gill, Baptist Representative, Europe, on Left, and P. V. Pavloff of All Russian Baptist Union.

From the beginning of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign to January, 1922 a total of $30,356,319.41 had been paid in to objects fostered by the Campaign, it is announced by the general headquarters office at Nashville. Of this amount $28,799,971.15 came through the payment of regular Campaign subscriptions and the remaining $1,556,348.26 in special contributions. Regular receipts from the various states follow: Ala., $1,301,134.78; Ark., $714,683.09; D. C., $123,280.01; Fla., $469,753.53; Ga., $3,000,174.10; Ill., $298,576.13; Ky., $3,187,656.15; La., $807,991.13; Md., $393,517.46; Miss., $1,243,846.50; Mo., $1,190,754.70; N. Y., $145,229.97; N. C., $2,211,741.50; Okla., $840,562.65; S. C., $2,633,840.53; Tenn., $1,797,483.10; Tex., $5,162,558.35; Va., $3,279,085. More than 250,000 baptisms were reported by Southern Baptist churches last year.

How Money Was Distributed
Seven general objects of the denomination were embraced in the Campaign program, and from the regular Campaign contributions those objects have received the following amount according to a compilation by the headquarters office: Foreign missions, $434,012.53; home missions, $562,600.67; state missions in the seven states and local work in the District of Columbia, $4,954,813.26; Christian education, $7,192,442.79; Baptist hospitals, $2,004,099.16; orphanages, $1,103,787.33; and Relief and Annual Board, which ministers to aged dependent ministers and their families, $799,126.99.

What Money Has Done
These funds represent an advance ranging from 200 to 300 per cent. the contributions of Southern Baptists to their general missionary, educational and benevolent work, prior to the inauguration of the Campaign, have enabled the boards and other agencies to greatly extend their services in all departments. In addition to sending out more than 180 new missionaries since the Campaign began and providing many church buildings, mission residences, schools, theological seminaries, publishing houses, hospitals and the like on the old fields the Foreign Mission Board has been enabled to open work in the fields of Spain, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Roumania and Southern Russia, Europe, and Palestine, Syria and Arabia in Asia, and Dr. Everett Gill, many years a missionary in Italy, more recently a pastor in Kansas City, has been named special European representative to supervise the great expanded work on that continent. Dr. Gill is giving much of his time to distributing Baptist relief funds in Russia and otherwise looking after the interests of the denomination there.

Home Work Enlarged
Among the outstanding accomplishments of the Home Mission Board is the aiding of more than 1,000 churches with loans and gifts for church buildings, completion of the big tuberculosis sanatorium at El Paso, enlargement of the work in Cuba and the Canal Zone, strengthening of the mountain mission schools and the development of all eleven departments of the work of the Board. In all sixteen states of the Southern Baptist Convention the state mission work has been greatly extended, the number of Baptist hospitals in the South has been increased from eleven to twenty-three, all of the older eighteen Baptist orphanages have been aided in material ways and two new ones have been established, while the number of independent ministers and their families has been doubled and the amount of aid given them increased 100 per cent.

Collections Are Pushed
While the collections so far represent a big gain over the contributions of Southern Baptists to their work for the Campaign, the sum collected is not all that is due and in all South an effort is being made to collect as much more as possible by close of the Convention year. May not none of the work may suffer.

The Hondo Protestant Messenger, a new paper published at Hondo, Tex., by S. C. Swinney, editor, and G. Smith, assistant editor, printed in the Hondo Anvil Herald office, four page, four column, religious county publication to reach our readers. It is a bright, newsy sheet, seems to fill a place all its own, and a "long felt want." The local churches of the Baptist and Methodist are the editors. We have the new paper on our exchange list.—Devine News.

OF INTEREST TO BOND HOLDERS

Desiring to be of service to its readers, many of whom own Victory Notes, the following information is presented by this paper with reference to the June 15, 1922, call by the Treasury for 3 3-4 Victory Notes, and the temporary redemption privilege relative to Victory 4 3-4s. Inquiries indicate there has been some misunderstanding on the part of the public.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has called Victory 3 3-4 Notes for redemption at par and accrued interest June 15, 1922. After June 15 these bonds, because they have been called, will bear no interest. It is to the owner's advantage to surrender them at that time, or any time before at par plus accrued interest, and reinvest the proceeds. For re-investment the U. S. Government Savings Organization at Dallas has suggested the New Issue of Treasury Savings Certificates which are to be had at postoffices or through banks in $1000, $100 and $25, maturity value, denominations, costing, respectively, $800, $80 and $20. These are registered in the owner's name when purchased and are loss-proof as well as depreciation or market fluctuation-proof. They mature five years from date of purchase; bear 4 1-2 per cent, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Over a period of five years they yield 25 per cent on the investment. They are cashable at purchaser's option before maturity. Ownership limit is $5,000, maturity value.

Until March 15, the Treasury has authorized The Federal Reserve Bank to receive 4 3-4 per cent Victories from owners who desire to sell them to the Government at par plus accrued interest. If held after that time, unless the purchase period is extended, the 4 3-4 Victories will run on till maturity, which is May 23, 1923. Those who desire may take advantage of this temporary period and convert their bonds into cash. Re-investment in Treasury Savings Certificates of the New Issue has been recommended.

Owners are advised to consult local bankers for specific advice.

LECTURE ON THE USES OF CONCRETE.

H. R. Herndon of the Portland Cement Association, a national organization to improve and extend the uses of concrete, gave a lecture to the business men of Hondo Wednesday, at the Chamber of Commerce Assembly Room, under the auspices of the Alamo Lumber Company and the Hondo Lumber Company, co-operating.

Among those present were: Joe Ney, Ed Ney, Aug. Schuehle Sr., F. Davis, P. Kelly, G. Martin, Jacob Reilly, R. J. Reilly, R. A. Spence, J. E. Schlottmann, Robt. Brieten, F. Batot, A. U. Rothe, Clint Rothe, John Wiemers, Theo. Wiemers.

Mr. Herndon's talk was a discussion of the common faults which lead to the making of bad concrete, and how to avoid them. All present were invited to ask questions on any points about which they desired information.

The factors stressed in the lecture leading to the making of poor concrete were: (1) The use of dirty sand and pebbles or crushed stone; (2) the use of bank-run or pit-run aggregates and failure to proportion properly; (3) the use of too much or too little water in the concrete; (4) improper mixing and placing in the forms; (5) seepage or day's-work planes; (6) failure to cure the concrete when placed.

The Portland Cement Association maintains a great research department through which half a million dollars has already been spent in endeavoring to learn all that can be found out about concrete, so the facts can be given out without cost to those who use it. The lecture given by Mr. Herndon, and the offer of free bulletins on methods of construction represent an effort of the Association to co-operate with the building men.

MISS HUDSPETH ENTERTAINS.

Miss Irene Hudspeth entertained the Merry Maids in a most pleasing manner Tuesday afternoon.

Kodak pictures were taken in every cunning posture which these very merriest of maidens could assume.

During the afternoon Irene invited the girls into her room to see "something interesting." They followed in eager anticipation. Now what could there be in that room of interest? But they were soon to find out. The bed was a riot of the daintiest laces, ribbons, silks and linen which, upon closer inspection, took form into the most elegant lingerie and household linens, which could belong to no other than the dainty maid who made them. The girls were speechless at first and gazed in silent wonderment at the beautiful array before them until assured that the vision would not vanish if touched. There were many questions to be answered by Irene as to when these pretty things were to be used.

Gentle hints on how to manage a husband were offered while refreshments of chocolate and cakes were being served.

Those present were Mesdames Roland and Gaines, Clarence Van Fleet, Misses Corena Locke, Maggie Cameron, Pearl Walker, Eunice Hines, Pam Gilliam, Gertrude and Annie Reilly, Nettie Fly, Nettie Mae Newton and the hostess.

RADCLIFFE CHAUTAUQUA

FIRST DAY

The Coleman Concert Company, headed by Edward Coleman, a gifted performer on the flute, cornet, piccolo, saxophone, piano, clarinet and French horn. He is also assisted by Miss Luella Kloss, a violinist who plays with exquisite taste, and Miss Ethel Shepard who has a beautiful soprano voice and contributes piano solos that sparkle with fun.

Ellsworth Plumstead: An artist of surprising versatility who has achieved distinction for his character delineations. His rendition, "When Uncle Ezra Sang First Verse" has been for years considered a masterpiece, and his story, "The Other One Was Both" is a classic in its human appeal.

Ulysses G. Lacey, who, as a speaker is not unlike the Abraham Lincoln type of eloquence, directness and earnestness.

Afternoon—"Making the Dream Come True."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Colonel."

The Junior Worker in stories the young and old demonstration in organized play.

SECOND DAY

The Boston Joy-Makers, Walter Eccles and Al. Pearsall, Harmony and humor here travel hand in hand at a lively pace, insuring much fun mixed with a wealth of spirited music. Mr. Eccles provides a reliable flow of mirth and merriment not alone through his Scotch songs, but as an improviser he multiplies himself until he seems a whole company embodied in one artist. Paraphrased as it may seem, Mr. Pearsall may be described as a "solo artist"—playing the saxophone with one hand while accompanying himself on the piano with the other. Also as a member, he fills a dual role in creating comedy through his conversations between quaint characters. He is a comedian to the manner born.

The Chautauqua Director:
Afternoon—"The Storm."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Patriot."

THE THIRD DAY

The Kirk Frederick Company. Mr. Frederick is a violinist of international reputation. He captivates his audiences by the full, melodious and delicate phrasing that distinguishes every real artist. The program includes the highest forms of music, with classic interpretations. Miss Corinne Moore contributes a series of piano solos and improvisations that form a delightful background to the artistry of Mr. Frederick. This company also includes a skilled accompanist and vocalist.

Guy M. Bingham, educator, traveler and lecturer of unusual power.
Afternoon—"The Domestic Satisfaction of Life."
Evening—"The Spirit of the Pioneer."

The Oldest Man in the World

Just part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together they made—what? One of the most perplexing mysteries in the study of human history. Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago? Scientists believe that they were; they call him the "Dawn Man," and out of the record embedded in the rocks they have reconstructed the conditions of his life. How he killed his food and tore the raw flesh from the bones; how he married and fought and died! How little by little he clawed and climbed his way up to mastery over the beasts. It is a fascinating, gripping story, but it is only one of a thousand stories that stir your blood in this greatest book of modern times.

DEVINE NEWSLETS.

From The Devine News.

Mr. Shelton, the highway contractor, came in on the train from Temple Saturday about an hour behind his construction gang of fifty-two big mules and half as many men, wagons, fresnals, etc. He started camp near the Oil Well, below town and says he will soon be up with the concrete men, who began work two weeks ago. He brought this gang from Palo Pinto, via Temple, and was delayed several days enroute, because of the bad weather. He is a big contractor, with several outfits, and seems to know how to make highways.

County Attorney D. C. Brown transacted business in Hondo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ulbrich of Hondo visited their daughter, Mrs. Guy Newcomb, here Tuesday.

The Melon growers in the vicinity of Devine met March 4th, and organized a melon growers association, to work in connection with the Texas Farm Bureau Federation at Dallas, electing the following officials or directors: W. C. Stone, chairman, G. C. Harrison, vice-chairman, J. C. Thompson, Secretary and treasurer, Geo. Briscoe, J. C. Redus, W. G. Driscoll, J. R. Hester, C. A. Duncan Jr., with charter members of 18 growers, having 271 acres under contract.

About a dozen leading business men went over to Hondo Monday and threshed out the highway proposition, but no change was made, for the present, and the matter will probably be dropped if the East Siders can get a way opened through town. We understand that neither the Ry. Co. or Williamson Bros. have as yet consented, or agreed upon any terms.

The West Siders offered the Court an open right of way through town on good ground and only 150 feet farther. The East Siders have made a lot of fuss, but they have never opened a right of way through town. The local agent for the Ry. Co. here has never received any notice revoking the Company's notice to "keep off their lands," issued several weeks ago. It is not believed that any consent has been had as yet from the Co. to use their right of way, or cross their down-town yards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackburn of Biry were in town Friday shopping and visiting their daughter. They report a corn planting season in most of the lands up there but want more rain.

We fought for the freedom of Cuba in '98 and now we have to go there to enjoy it.—Cornell Widow.
